GATE COMPANY ACQUIRES SITE

Buys McIntee Property at Northwest Corner of L. E. & W. Railroad and Third Street

A BUILDING WILL BE PUT UP

It May Be Completed this Month if Weather Does Not Interfere.

Increase Force of Men.

The National Gate Company has purchased the John McIntee property at the northwest corner of Third street and the L. E. & W. railroad, it was announced by officials of the company today, and will erect a building at once to house the new home industry.

The gate company has been negotiating with the railroads entering Rushville for several weeks to get a location for their factory, but all deals fell through. However, within a half hour after the company had decided on the McIntee property as a site for the concern, the Big Four presented an offer whereby the company could acquire the ground at the northwest corner of the Big Four railroad and Seventh street, where the old Bentwood factory once stood.

The ground which was procured by the National Gate Company is a hundred and twenty-nine feet wide at the north end, a hundred feet wide at the south end and three hundred and thirty feet long. The property, which is located at the south end, will be left standing and the new home of the concern will be erected on the north end.

The building will be forty-eight feet by ninety-six feet and will be a frame structure of one story with a solid concrete foundation. If the weather is not too unfavorable, the building will likely be completed this month. A large force of men will be put to work at once.

The concern will install all of the modern machinery that it can use to advantage and will increase its force be several men. In its present hampered quarters the company could not accomplish scarcely anything. Only three men have been working and they were often in one another's way, so cramped was the building.

"We have not been taking any more orders than we thought we could fill," said a member of the company this morning, "but when we get into our new building, we will be able to handle all the business that comes our way."

"We have been hampered so by our cramped room that we had to refuse orders. We feel that we can get the business, once we are prepared to handle it. The success of our gate makes it plain that we can sell the output."

The members of the company are very well pleased with the new site. The shipping facilities are excellent. On the east of the site are the Big Four and L. E. & W. railroads, and on the north the C. H. & D. railroad.

The bond sale and the letting of the contract for the new school building in Walker township to be built in Manilla, which was to have occurred today, was postponed until March 26. According to the law the notice to contractors must appear twenty-one days previous to the awarding of the contract. It was found that the notice had only appeared fourteen days and the notice was ordered republished.

GRAND LARCENY CHARGE TO BE MADE

Fred Thomas, Age 17, of Fairland, is Arrested in Shelbyville For Stealing 30 Pounds of Copper.

FROM THE I. & C. TRACTION CO.

Lenroy Cox of this city, chief of the track and line department of the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company, was expected in Shelbyville today to prefer charges of grand larceny against Fred Thomas, age seventeen years, who was arrested there last Saturday evening for the theft of thirty pounds of copper from the I. & C.

The boy lives in Fairland, but was in Shelbyville trying to dispose of the booty when the Shelbyville police were notified of the robbery. After a junk dealer refused to buy the copper, the boy hid it in a snow pile. He at first denied he had stolen it, declaring the copper was his father's, but later admitted the crime.

The boy's father has been in the insane hospital in Indianapolis for several months and his mother is serving a term in the Indiana women's prison, together with Mr. and Mrs. Dallis Taggart, for the theft of 19 chickens.

IS OUTGROWTH OF RECENT MISHAP

Ordinance in Indianapolis City Council to Prohibit Interurbans From Leaving at Certain Times

HEAVY PENALTY PROVIDED

Attention is Called, in Introducing Measure, to Recent Accident Near the Viaduct.

There was introduced at the regular meeting of the Indianapolis city council in Indianapolis last night an ordinance to limit the speed of city and interurban cars in Indianapolis; to prohibit interurban cars from leaving the traction terminal station during traffic rush hours and to provide that during operation interurban city cars shall be no closer than fifty feet.

This ordinance is a direct outgrowth of the accident at the foot of the viaduct in Indianapolis two weeks ago when an Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company's freight car crashed into the back end of a city car and caused the death of four and the injury of several others.

No attempt has ever been made to fix the blame for the recent accident. The coroner has finished his investigation and the Marion county grand jury and the public service commission were also to conduct inquiries. At the investigation of the coroner, the evidence did not tend to fix the blame on anyone. George Skipton of this city, the master mechanic of the I. & C., said that the brakes on the interurban car were in good working order and practically all of the witnesses said that the freight car was not running over eight or ten miles an hour.

The ordinance introduced last night provides that freight and interurban cars shall not depart from Indianapolis station between the hours of 6:30 and 8:30 a. m.; 11:30 and 1 p. m. and 5 and 7 o'clock p. m. A fine of from $10 to $100 is proposed for each violation of the ordinance.

EXHIBIT HAD WIDE APPEAL

Recent Activity of Purdue University Resulted in Stimulation of Poultry Interests.

IN CONNECTION WITH SHOWS

Intimate Contact Reached With Farmers is Held to be Most Important Factor.

Poultry interests in Indiana have received a stimulus as the result of an educational exhibit sent out from Purdue University. The exhibit consisting of work of the Poultry Department in concrete form was accompanied by a Poultry specialist who conducted demonstrations, lectures, advised with the poultry people and in other ways assisted in the movement.

"Grow more and better chickens," "Produce larger numbers of better eggs at a lower cost," "Make the poultry business pay" were some of the slogans used in this campaign. The people listened and heard and it is evident that results will be secured.

The shows visited were Thorntown, Sheridan, Terre Haute, Rensselaer, Evansville, Peru, and LaPorte. This is a feature of extension work which no other state has yet been able to conduct successfully, but the success of the Purdue work this year has been such that it will be continued again next winter.

The intimate contact reached with the farmers is the most important factor accomplished by the work this year. From the large amount of correspondence received at Purdue from poultry men and farmers where exhibits are held, it is very evident that a great deal of interest was aroused through this agency. In one instance the officials of the show state that the public was interested more in the educational exhibits than in the birds which were shown. A model poultry house, different types of feeders, egg testers, and various other items of equipment constituted the exhibit.

Since the exhibit was held one week at each place, the Purdue representative had an opportunity to become acquainted with the local conditions and to offer many timely suggestions when called upon. He visited a few farms to assist the farmers in solving some of their problems. Officials from all of the shows state that he did much to contribute toward the success of the poultry work.

KUBLER REFUSED LICENSE

Commissioners Turn Down One Applicant at Connersville.

The Fayette county commissioners granted nine liquor licenses yesterday and refused one. The refusal was in the case of William Kubler. The action of the board was the outgrowth of a window smashing episode pulled off a few weeks ago by Kubler. Kubler sought to have his license transferred to a room at the corner of Sixth and Central avenue. He held a lease on the room and one Saturday night he went to the place and smashed every window in the front of the place. At the hearing for a transfer several saloon men testified against him and the action of the board in refusing a license came as no surprise.

The Berlin Women's Bank is said to be the only one in the world run for and by women exclusively.

MEAT MARKET WAS ROBBED

L. C. Sharp's Place Entered and $3.65 in Cash Taken.

The L. C. Sharp meat market in West Second street was robbed last night of $3.65 in money. The front door was found unlocked this morning when Mr. Sharp went to open up for the day. He left four dollars in change in the cash drawer on closing last night and all but thirty-five cents was taken. The front door was closed but not locked after the robbery. The matter was reported to the police but there is no clue. Mr. Sharp did not miss any meat and the robber was evidently only after money.

INSURANCE CASES DISMISSED TODAY

Understood Compromise Provided For Payment of Almost Face Value of Policies.

RESULT OF MASONIC FIRE

The cases brought by John W. Jackson, whose store was destroyed in the Masonic Temple fire, against insurance companies holding policies on his stock, were dismissed today in the circuit court. The cases were against the Fidelity Underwriters, the Rochester German Underwriters Agency, the Phoenix Assurance company and the Liverpool and London and Globe, insurance companies.

In all $5,400 was demanded, and while it was not given out how much Mr. Jackson received in the compromise, it is understood that he was paid almost the face value of the policies. The companies withheld payment on the policies following the fire and Mr. Jackson was forced to sue. It has been the general understanding in court that the cases would never come to trial and the compromise caused no surprise.

TOM SULLIVAN IN RUNAWAY

Deputy Sheriff Had Thrilling Time Near Blue Ridge.

Thomas Sullivan, deputy sheriff, had a thrilling experience yesterday in a runaway near Blue Ridge. Mr. Sullivan was serving some papers connected with his office in that community. The buggy upset in an open ditch and when the shafts broke the horse ran away. Mr. Sullivan was locked up in the overturned buggy and all that saved him from injury is the fact that the horse ran away. The buggy was slightly damaged and it was necessary to borrow a set of shafts to make the return trip to this city. The outfit was the property of Sheriff Cavitt.

Here is the reason: Black Silk Stove Polish sticks right to the iron. It doesn't rub off or dust off. Its shine lasts four times longer than the shine of any other polish. You only need to polish one-fourth as often, yet your stove will be cleaner, brighter and better looking than it has been since you first bought it. Use

If you do not find it better than any other stove polish you have ever used before, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. Amusements

The Gem offers a three reel Imp feature tonight "entitled "Miracle Mary." Fritz Brunette is featured. The story is taken from a magazine feature and deals with the restoration of a girl through the Salvation army. The girl is later charged with murder and the miracle occurs. Tomorrow night the Bison feature "The Water War" in two parts will be shown.

The Portola was unable to secure the Mary Fuller picture tonight and in its place will show a Vitagraph drama "Her Faith in the Flag." The picture that was to have been shown tonight will be brought here at an early date. The other film tonight is "Pathe Weekly, No. 67."

The Princess will show tonight the two reel special "Heartase." The production stands out as an individual type. The story as it moves across the screen is so perfectly connected and so carefully prepared in every respect that it lives in the mind of the spectator as a vivid bit of realism. The climax of the picture is tremendously spectacular in effect, for one night a fire breaks out in the mansion, and after all are conveyed to safety the little son, remembering his mothers portrait rushes in, grasps the picture, and is rescued from the burning building by his father only to expire with his mother's picture clasped close to his heart. Tomorrow, Matinee and night the big three reel special "When the Earth Trembled" will be shown. This is a wonderful production by the Lubin company and features Harry Myers and Ethel Clayton

An event of unusual theatrical importance for the week of March 9th Shubert Murat Theater, Indianapolis, is the coming of Mr. Robert B. Mantell, the leader of the American stage in the Shakespearean and classic drama. Mr. Mantell is just returning from his Coast tour which was a real ovation. Last week in Winnipeg, Manitoba, the receipts for the week were over $12,000. The feature of his tour this year is a massive production of Shakespeare's historical tragedy, "King John." Never has a Shakespearean production been reviewed by the critics in such a laudatory manner. The repertoire announced for the week is as follows: Monday, March 9-----"King John" Tuesday, March 10-----"Hamlet" Wednesday Matinee "Merchant of Venice" Wednesday night-----"Macbeth" Thursday, March 12-----"King Lear" Friday, March 13-----"King John" Saturday matinee. Saturday night "Merchant of Venice."

Mail orders are being received for Mr. Mantell's engagement.

Had Booze

BUT IT WAS FORMALDEHYDE

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, March 3.—Having decided on an early morning "gladdener," George Marshall, age 43, and Dudley Morgan, age 64, his step-father, searched today for the whiskey bottle. They found instead a quart bottle of formaldehyde, used as a disinfectant. Both men took a tip without noticing the mistake.

Mrs. Marshall found them later and tried to arouse them. The two men are in the city hospital where it is said the danger is passed. The doctors said that they did not yet know their mistakes due to the imperceptible action of the poison.

Judge Barhorst Was Relieved of Rheumatism After Doctors Failed.

If you have tried many other remedies and doctors' treatments for Rheumatism and found they failed, do not be skeptical about trying RHEUMA. Read the testimony of Judge John Barhorst of Fort Laramie, O.:

"After treatment by three doctors without result, I have been cured of a very bad case of Rheumatism by using two bottles of RHEUMA. It is now two years since I used the remedy, and I am still as well as ever. Previously, I was a cripple, walking with crutches."

He's the Committee.
 "Thomas Taggart came up from French Lick and attended the meeting. He is not a member of the state committee. He is the state committee." Indianapolis News.

This sums up the situation in Indiana Democratic politics. The strange thing about it seems to be that no one will even deny any charges of this nature. The Democratic party goes placidly on under the attacks from many quarters. Mr. Taggart continues to strengthen his strangle hold and the fellows down in the trenches think it is great stuff.

The politics in the party of Woodrow Wilson and William Jennings Bryan in Indiana has descended to such a state that a state official, an appointee hand picked by the state machine, has been selected to make all of the arrangements for the state convention.

The fellow who seems to be the "goat" is James F. Fry, state oil inspector. He is being paid with the good money we, the people of Indiana, pay in the form of inheritance tax and other such taxes. He draws a decent salary, which is supposed to be for working for the people who pay him. But he probably has ample time to keep the bright lights burning in his Indianapolis office.

At any rate we know that he has time to do the machine's bidding. The machine said for "Jim" to be the whole committee on arrangements at the coming state convention, and "Jim" will have to be. If he didn't obey the machine, a faithful lieutenant could be supplied who would and it wouldn't be long until he would have "Jeemes'" job, either.

Fry will select all of the assistant sergeants-at-arms, door-keepers and other helpers for the affair; he will look after the music, the decorations, the seating of the hall, the distribution of tickets, and practically everything but the nomination of the ticket. The machine itself will look after that part of the work, the delegates having an opportunity to ratify the selections and give three cheers for the ticket.

This is the first time that a state convention has been in the hands of one man, as this one will be in the hands of Fry. It has been the custom for the state committee to appoint a committee of its own members for this duty. Fry sat in the meeting, Saturday afternoon, in place of Edward G. Hoffman, of Ft. Wayne, district chairman for the Twelfth district, and after the close of the meeting he was bearing up nicely under the load of responsibility that had been heaped upon him.

BRYAN FINDS HIS HANDS TIED

Secretary of State is Blocked in the Task Great Britain Imposed on Him.

BOLD STAND OF CARRANZA

Defiant Attitude of Credited Head of Rebels May Change Policy of United States.

BRITISH RESERVE RIGHT.

(By United Press.)
 London, Mar. 3.—The British government reserves the right to itself to obtain full reparation for the murder of W. S. Benton, the British subject, at the hands of General Villa, a Rebel leader.

Sir Edward Grey, secretary of foreign affairs, made that announcement this afternoon in the House of Commons in answer to a question as to the status of the Mexican situation. He said England had no intention of sending armed troops into Mexico and intimated that he believed that the United States would make it unnecessary for Great Britain to act.

(Special to the Daily Republican)
 Washington, March 3.—Left in a predicament by General Carranza's determination to maintain the dignity of his revolutionary chieftainship at the expense of the United States and Great Britain, the state department now is endeavoring to reach an agreement with the Constitutionalist leader by which the investigation into the Benton matter may continue.

While it is generally conceded that a diplomatic blunder was made in exposing the United States government to a denial by Carranza of the right of Washington to act in the interests of Great Britain in northern Mexico, officials are hopeful that a way can be found to surmount the obstacles interposed by the Constitutionalist.

The situation precipitated by Carranza's bold declarations was characterized as very serious because of its having effectually tied the hands of the United States, for the moment at least, in its effort to fulfill the task which Great Britain has imposed on Washington in the Benton case.

A new tone with regard to the Mexican situation was perceptible at the White House and was generally interpreted as an indication of a forthcoming stiffening of the administration's policy.

For the first time the president seemed to be giving thought to the possibility of enforced intervention as a real factor in the situation. At any rate he took occasion to warn those who are urging vigorous action in Mexico of what it would cost in human life and to caution them that they must be prepared to pay the price of such a course. He urged patience upon those Americans.

The British ambassador, Sir Cecil Arthur Spring-Rice was quick to take cognizance of the change in the situation resulting from Carranza's declaration of policy with reference to the relations of the Constitutionalist authorities with other governments. He brought with him to the state department the Spanish ambassador, Don Hinao, whose interest in the situation is identical with that of the British because Carranza has declared that Spain also must deal directly with him in regard to the interests of subjects in constitutional territory in Mexico. The killing of a Spaniard in Tepic has furnished a parallel of the Benton case.

The two ambassadors conferred with John Bassett Moore, the international law authority of the administration, with regard to the right of Spain and Great Britain to choose to ask the United States to act for them instead of themselves dealing directly with Carranza. The conclusion reached was that both governments are quite within rights and it may be accepted as an established fact that neither government will yield to Carranza's demand for recognition of his claims that they must deal with him alone. The ambassadors also conferred with Secretary Bryan on the same subject and were assured that the United States government would continue to exert itself in their interests.

LOBBY MAY WORK FOR THIS LAW

Movement Under Way for Act to Allow Witness Fees in Criminal
 Trials in Indiana

JUDGE MARKEY FAVORS PLAN

Present Custom is Hardship to Poor
 People as They Have to Pay
 Own Expenses

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, March 3.—Crystallizing sentiment here makes it appear that a formidable lobby will request the next legislature for a law allowing expenses and a fee to witnesses in criminal trials.

Judge Markey of Criminal court is leading the movement, and he is backed by the prosecutors' office, Judge Deery of Police court and Sheriff Porttens. They believe that witnesses in criminal trials should receive the same consideration as they do in civil trials and that as the matter now stands a hardship is often worked on the needy.

"When I am informed that a very poor person is to be called as a witness in a criminal case I make provisions for him," Judge Markey told the United Press today. "I have a fund here to be used for that purpose if I wish. Often, however, I am not informed concerning the finances of the witnesses, and in those cases, I fear, they suffer."

"I shall be interested in asking the next legislature to make it possible to send with the subpoenae the expenses of going to the city where the trial is held, and to make it possible for the witnesses to collect a fee and expenses both while in the city and for the return trip."

Ralph McCarty, Prosecutor Baker's first assistant, said he also thought such a law would be beneficial.

"The present law which makes it possible for a person to be declared 'indigent' is unsatisfactory," he said, "because many of the very poor are too proud to take advantage of it. Also, when they are called to testify before the grand jury or in a criminal case the next day, there is no opportunity to complete the 'red tape' necessary to take advantage of that decision."

Sheriff Porttens in a recent interview said that his experience in serving subpoenaes has convinced him that a hardship is done by the state in many instances. He said he intended to go before the legislature to ask that expenses and a fee be allowed.

"Often when there is a change of venue to another county or when persons are called before the grand jury from another county the hardship results," he said.

Judge Deery of Police court, who formerly was deputy prosecutor in charge of the Marion county grand jury, said that many times he had called people from northern and southern parts of the state before the jury; and that they had been forced to return for trial. "They never had any resource, but they had to come. It is an injustice even to a well-to-do person."

Young Woman Frozen to Death.

Hazleton, Pa., March 3.—Miss Ella Sweeney, twenty-two years old, of Freeland, was found frozen to death in a cutter where her companion, James Bartholdi, had left her in a blinding storm, while he went for help. They became stuck in the snow and Bartholdi left her while he went on foot for assistance. When he reached help two miles distant he was so exhausted he was not permitted to return. A searching party found Miss Sweeney's body.

Overhead wires were blown from the trolley poles and littered the streets, and poles were hurled across the tracks. The police stations sheltered many persons in all parts of the city who were unable to reach their homes on account of the fury of the storm. Reports from all points upstate as far as Williamsport tell of great havoc wrought; houses blown down and unroofed and many barns destroyed.

Philadelphia, March 3.—Railroad service in snowbound Philadelphia is crippled in all directions and in some cases practically has been discontinued. Telegraphic communication is practically cut off. Seven persons are dead in this city as a result of the storm.

The blizzard was the most disastrous since February, 1902. The actual snowfall is about seven inches, but the high winds have piled up five-foot drifts in many places. The wind attained a velocity of forty-three miles an hour. In the northeastern part of the city several houses were blown down. Germantown, Mt. Airy and Chestnut Hill were snowbound many hours. Police went to the rescue of many persons, principally women who became exhausted while beating their way home.

Philadelphia, March 3.—The Democratic Eleventh district congressional convention was held in this city this afternoon. George W. Rauch o Marion, was renominated without opposition.

Logansport, Ind., March 3.—The Democratic Eleventh district congressional convention was held in this city this afternoon. George W. Rauch o Marion, was renominated without opposition.

Terre Haute Jury Hears More Testimony in the Scandal Concerning the Election.

FALSE NAMES WERE ENTERED

Evidence Shows in Addition That Persons Were Registered From Fake Addresses.

BOTH SIDES REST.

(By United Press.)

Terre Haute, Mar. 3.—Both the state and the defense in the local election fraud cases rested today and court was adjourned until tomorrow at 10 a. m. when the argument will begin. Mrs. Grover Smith, wife of one of the defendants, testified today that "framers-up" were at her home election eve and that ballots were marked that night.

"I lied when I told the defense attorney earlier that no ballots were marked in my home that night," she said.

(Special to the Daily Republican)

Terre Haute, Ind., March 3.—In the trial of William Huffman, accused of election fraud, the state brought about a disclosure of about 200 false and fictitious names on the registration books of Precinct D of the Seventh ward.

According to Special Prosecutor Roach in a statement to the court, the purpose of investigating the registration books was to connect the alleged election fraud conspiracy of Huffman, Helmick, Zaring and others with the taking of official ballots and the marking of the same.

The state also produced more damaging evidence when all the ballots returned from that precinct, both voted and unused, were counted in the presence of the jury. The count showed a total of 829 and revealed a shortage of 155 ballots, within one ballot of the number Zaring and Whistler said were marked. B. M. Calhoun, Progressive clerk of the election board, identified his signature of initials on the ballots.

Mike Zabo, a Roumanian, gave evidence to show that scores of foreigners did not register at the polling places, but wrote their names on affidavits in the Dan Alban saloon. Two barrels of free beer was the inducement that attracted foreigners to this saloon registration.

Joseph Carter again went on the stand and told of making a complete poll of American and English speaking voters of the precinct. Mr. Carter, through typewritten pages, showed that scores of false names had been registered from vacant lots, while others were registered from addresses where the persons did not live.

MRS. LYON'S ACHES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's

Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs.
Augustus Lyon, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womankind
a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

CHAPTER XIV.

A Falsehood Under the Palms.

"WELL, it seems he'd bought a ticket for that loud colored country where I met him and come down there to forget.
I could buy the ticket," he said, "as soon as I learned how to pronounce the name of this town. But I can't forget.
I've tried. It's hopeless." And he sat there looking like a man whose best friend had died owing him money. I won't go into his emotions. Mr.
Bland, up at the inn, is suffering them at the present moment, I'm told. They are unimportant; I'll hurry on to the lie. I simply say he was sorrowful, and it seemed to me a crime, what with the sun so bright and the sea so blue and the world so full of a number of things. Yes, it certainly was a crime, and I decided he had to be cheered up at any cost. How? I thought awhile, gazing up at the sky, and then it came to me—the lie—the great, glorious lie—
and I told it.

The hermit looked in defiance round
the listening circle.

"You're chock full of sorrow now,"
I said to McMann, "but it won't last long." He shook his head. "Nonsense," I told him. "Look at me. Do you see me doing a heart bowed down act under the palms? And he couldn't, the lie unfolding itself in such splendor to me. 'You?' he asked. 'Me,' I said.
'Ten years ago I was where you are today. A woman had spoken to me as Mabel—or Marie—or what was it?—
spoke to you.'

"I could see I had the boy interested.
I unfolded my story as it occurred to me at the moment. 'Yes,' said I, 'ten years ago I saw her first. Dancing as a butterfly dances from flower to flower, dancing on the stage—a fairy sprite
—I loved her, worshiped her. It could never be. There in the dark of the wings she told me so. And she shed a tear—a sweet tear of sorrow at parting.

"I went to my room," I told Mc-Mann, "with a lot of time tables and steamship books—bright red books; the color came off on my eager hands. I picked out a country and sailed away.
Like you, I thought I could never be happy, never even smile again. Look at me!

"He looked. I guess my face radiated bliss. The idea was so lovely
He was impressed—I could see it.
'I'm supremely happy,' I told him.
'I am my own master. I wander where I will. No woman tells me my hour for going out or my hour for coming in. I wander. For company
I have her picture—as I saw her last —with twinkling feet that never touched earth. As the spirit moves I go. You can move the memory of a woman in a flash, my boy, but it takes two months to get the real article started, and then, like as not, she's forgot everything of importance. Ever thought of that? You should. You're going to be as happy as I am. Study me. Reflect.' I waved my carpet slippers toward the palms. I had certainly made an impression on Alexander McMann.

"As we walked back over the sands and grass grown streets to the hotel
his heart got away from that cupid's lunch counter, and he was almost cheerful. I was gay to the last, but as I parted from him my own heart sank. I knew I had to go back to her and that she would probably give me a scolding about the carpet slippers. I parted from McMann with a last word of cheer. Then I went to the ship—
to her, my wife. That was the lie, you understand. She traveled everywhere with me. She never trusted me.

"We were due to sail that night,
and I was glad, for I worried some over what I had done. Suppose my wife and Alexander McMann should meet. An estimable woman, but large, determined, but little suggesting the butterfly of the footlights I married long before. We had a bad session over the carpet slippers. The boat was ready to sail when McMann came aboard. He carried a bag, and his face shone.

"She's sent for me," he said. "Marie wants me. I got a letter from my brother. I'll blow into Kansas like a cyclone and claim her."

"I was paralyzed. At that minute
a large black figure appeared on deck.
It headed for me. 'Jake,' it says,
'you've sat up long enough. Go below
now.'"
"McMann's face was terrible. I saw it was all up. 'I lied, McMann,' I explained. 'The idea just came to me, it fascinated me, and I lied. She did turn me down—there in the wings.
And she shed that tear I spoke of too.
But when I was looking over the railroad folders she sent for me. I went—on the wings of love. It was two blocks, but I went on the wings of love. We've been married twenty years. Forgive me, McMann!'"

"McMann turned around. He picked up the bag. I asked where he was going. 'Ashore,' he said, 'to think. I may go back to Kansas City—I may.

But I'll just think a bit first.' And he climbed into the ship's boat. I never saw him again."

The hermit paused and gazed dreamily into space.

"That," he said, "was my one great lie, my masterpiece. A year afterward I came up here on the mountain to be a hermit."

"As a result of it?" asked Miss Norton.

"Yes," answered Mr. Peters, "I told the story to a friend. I thought he was a friend. So he was, but married.
My wife got to hear of it. 'So you denied my existence?' she said.
'As a joke,' I told her. 'The joke's on you,' she says. That was the end.
She went her way, and I went mine.
I'd just unanimously gone her way
so long I was a little dazed at first with my freedom. After fighting for a living alone for a time I came up here. It's cheap. I get the solitude I need for my book. Not long ago I heard I could go back to her if I apologized."

"Stick to your guns," advised Mr.
Max.

Miss Norton rose and stood before Mr. Peters. She fixed him with her eyes—eyes into which no man could gaze and go his way unmoved.

"Just one tiny day," she pleaded.

Mr. Peters sighed. He rose.

"I'm a fool," he said. "I can't help
it. I'll take chances on another day, though nobody knows where it'll lead."

"Brooklyn, maybe," whispered Lou Max to Magee in much horror.

The hermit donned his coat, attended to a few household duties and led the delegation outside. Dolefully he locked the door of his shack. The four started down the mountain.

"Back to Baldpate with our cook," said Mr. Magee into the girl's ear. "I know now how Caesar felt when he rode through Rome with his ex-foes
festeoned about his chariot wheels."

Mr. Max again chose the rear, triumphantly escorting Mr. Peters. As Mr. Magee and the girl swung into the lead the former was moved to recur to the topic he had handled so ama-teurishly a short time before.

"I'll make you believe in me yet," he said.

She did not turn her head.

"The moment we reach the inn," he went on, "I shall come to you with the package of money in my hand.
Then you'll believe I want to help
you. Tell me you'll believe then."

"Very likely I shall," answered the girl without interest. "If you really do intend to give me that money, no one must know about it."

"No one shall know," he answered,
"but you and me."

They walked on in silence. Then shyly the girl turned her head. Oh, most assuredly she was desirable.
Clumsy as had been his declaration
Mr. Magee resolved to stick to it through eternity.

"I'm sorry I spoke as I did," she said. "Will you forgive me?"

"Forgive you?" he cried. "Why, I—"

"And now," she interrupted, "let us talk of other things—of ships and shoes
and sealing wax."

"All the topics in the world," he replied, "can lead to but one with me—"

"Ships?" asked the girl.

"For honeymoons," he suggested.

"Shoes?"

"In some circles of society I believe they are hung at bridal parties."

"And sealing wax?"

"On the license, isn't it?" he queried.

They were then at the great front door of Baldpate inn.

Inside, before the office fire, Miss Thornhill read a magazine in the indolent fashion so much affected at Baldpate inn during the heated term, while the mayor of Reuton chatted amiably with the ponderously coy Mrs. Norton.
Into this circle burst the envoys to the hermitage, flushed, energetic, snowflaked.

"Hail to the chef who in triumph advances!" cried Mr. Magee.

Myra Thornhill laid down her magazine and fixed her great black eyes upon the radiant girl in corduroy.

"And was the walk in the morning air," she asked, "all you expected?"

"All and much more," laughed Miss Norton, mischievously regarding the man who had babbled to her of love
on the mountain. "By the way, enjoy
Mr. Peters while you can. He's back for just one day."

"Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow the cook leaves, as the fellow says," supplemented Mr. Max, removing his overcoat.

"How about a quick lunch, Peters?"
inquired Magee.

"Out of what, I'd like to know," put in Mrs. Norton. "Not a thing in the house to eat. Just like a man."

"You didn't look in the right place, ma'am," replied Mr. Peters, with relish. "I got supplies for a couple of days in the kitchen."

"Well, what's the sense in hiding
'em?" the large lady inquired.

"It ain't hiding—it's system," explained Mr. Peters. "Something women don't understand." He came close to Mr. Magee and whispered low, "You didn't warn me there was another of 'em."

"The last, on my word of honor,"
Magee told him.

"The last," sneered Mr. Peters.

"There isn't any last up here." And with a sidelong glance at the new Eve in his mountain Eden he turned away to the kitchen.

"Now," whispered Magee to Miss Norton, "I'll get you that package.
I'll prove that it was for you I fought and bled the mayor of Reuton. Watch for our chance. When I see you again I'll have it in my pocket."

"You mustn't fail me," she replied.

"It means so much."

Mr. Magee started for the stairs.
Between him and them loomed suddenly the great bulk of Mr. Cargan.

His hard menacing eyes looked full into Magee's.

"I want to speak to you, young fellow," he remarked.

"I'm flattered," said Magee, "that you find my company so enchanting.
In ten minutes I'll be ready for another interview."

"You're ready now," answered the mayor, "even if you don't know it.
I've been trying to dope you out, and I think I've got you. I've seen your kind before. Every few months one of 'em breezes into Reuton, spends a whole day talking to a few rats I've had to exterminate from politics and then flies back to New York with a ten page story of my vicious career all ready for the linotypers. Yes, sir, I got you. You write sweet things for the magazines."

"Think so?" inquired Magee.

"Know it," returned the mayor heartily. "So you're out after old Jim

"It will be a $200,000 story."

Cargan's scalp again, are you? I thought that now, seeing stories on the corruption of the courts is so plentiful, you'd let the same of the city halls alone for awhile. But—well, I guess I'm what you guys call good copy. Big, brutal, uneducated, picturesque—you see I read them stories myself. How long will the American public stand being ruled by a man like this, when it might be authorizing pretty boys with kid gloves to get next to the good things? That's the dope, ain't it—the old dope of the reform gang, the ballyhoo of the bunch that can't let the existing order stand?
Don't worry. I ain't going to get started on that again. But I want to talk to you serious—like a father.
There was a young fellow like you once—"

"Like me?"

"Exactly. He was out working on long hours and short pay for the reform gang, and he happened to get hold of something that a man I knew —a man high up in public office—wanted and wanted bad. The young fellow was going to get $200 for the article he was writing. My friend offered him $20,000 to call it off. What'd
the young fellow do?"

"Wrote the article, of course," said
Magee.

"Now—now," reproved Cargan. "That remark don't fit in with the estimate I've made of you. I think you're a smart boy. Don't disappoint me. This young fellow I speak of—he was smart, all right. He thought it over, Magee, the same as you're going to do. 'You're on,' says this lad and added five figures to his roll as easy as we'd add a nickel. He had brains, that guy."

"And no conscience," commented
Magee.

"Conscience," said Mr. Cargan,
"ain't worth much except as an excuse for a man that hasn't made good to give his wife. How much did you say you was going to get for this article?"

Mr. Magee looked him coolly in the eye.

"If it's ever written," he said, "it will be a $200,000 story."

"There ain't anything like that in it for you," replied the mayor. "Think over what I've told you."

"I'm afraid," smiled Magee, "I'm too busy to think."

He again crossed the office floor to the stairway. Before the fire sat the girl of the station, her big eyes upon him pleadingly. With a reassuring smile in her direction, he darted up the stairs.

"And now," he thought as he closed and locked the door of No. 7 behind him, "for the swag. So Cargan would give $20,000 for that little package. I don't blame him."

He knelt by the fireplace and dug up the brick under which lay the package
so dear to many hearts on Baldpate mountain.

"I might have known," he muttered.
For the money was gone. He dug up several of the bricks and rummaged about beneath them. No use. The fat little bundle of bills had flown.
Only an ugly hole gaped up at him.

Some People Waste Their Money

BUYING SPACE IN A NEWSPAPER TO TELL THE PEOPLE
ABOUT WHAT THEY HAVE SOLD and nine times out of ten they lie about that. The buggies we have sold are out where they will speak for themselves and they don't worry us, but we do want to call your attention to the fact that we still have a few of those large roomy buggies on our sample floor and if you are in the market for a storm buggy we want you to see them and it will save you money to look them over. We have lots of respect for the prediction that the little Ground Hog made about this weather. The sample has been good and if you are riding around without the protection of a storm buggy now is the time to get busy and buy one, then you will wonder why you didn't do it long ago. We have some extra good propositions on storm buggies now and if you will give us a chance we will tell you why we can sell you a better storm buggy for less money than our competitors can.

Rev. Welker preached at the morning service, taking the subject of "Reading." The scriptural foundation is in the admonition of the Apostle Paul to Timothy saying after all purity of speech, thought and action one should select pure reading such as is found in the scriptures, religious books and papers. On the account of the inclemency of the weather not many attended the preaching services. The thermometer at the Sunday school went down to 23.

YOU CAN'T EARN MONEY WHEN YOU'RE LAID UP

There are a lot of people in this town who cannot afford to be sick. Perhaps none of you feel that you can, but certainly some of you can't for as soon as you are sick, your wages stop and worry and debts begin to pile up. The sensible thing for you to do, as soon as you feel run-down and worn out, no matter what the cause, is to take something just as quick as you can to build up strength and health. Make yourself more comfortable and provide against serious sickness.

We don't believe there is any other medicine made that will do as much towards saving your health and thus helping you save your money as Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. It is a medicine that gets right at the trouble and relieves it by toning the nerves, enriching the blood, and giving new strength and health to the whole body. It doesn't do this by means of alcohol or habit-forming drugs, because it contains none. Its strength and healthgiving power is due to pure Olive Oil and the Hypophosphites, long endorsed by successful physicians, the one for its food value, the other for its tonic value. Here, for the first time, they are combined, and the result is a real nerve, blood and body-building medicine—a real strengthener that we are proud to tell you about. You don't need to hesitate in using it, because if it doesn't do all we say it will and satisfy you in every way, it will cost you nothing. If it doesn't do all we say it will and satisfy you in every way, it will cost you nothing. If it doesn't make you strong and well again, come back and get your money. It will be given to you without word or question. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us. $1.00. Lytle's Drug Store, Third and Main, Rushville, Ind. WOULDN'T FACE INSPECTION

When Shortage Was Disclosed Postmaster Killed Himself.

Fort Wayne, Ind., March 3.—Flara Shenk, postmaster at Cedar, Dekalb county, was short in his accounts when he ended his life with a revolver, in his office. It was given out at first that the act was prompted by ill-health, but it has been learned that Postoffice Inspector Beatty of Springfield, O., had checked up the office and found discrepancies between the accounts and the cash on hand. The inspector inquired the names of Shenk's bondsmen and sat down in the front of the office to write a report, when he heard the report of a revolver and ran to the rear of the office, to find Shenk dying. Mr. Beatty says the shortage was comparatively a trivial one that Shenk could have settled easily. The inspector has recommended that the postoffice at Cedar be abolished and that patrons be served by rural routes out of Garrett.

PUTS END TO MURDER TRIAL

Henry Zang, Prosecuting Witness in Case Against Wesley Simon, Kills Simon.

LATER GIVES HIMSELF UP

[Special to the Daily Republican.] St. Louis, March 3.—Wesley (Red) Simon, on trial here for murder, was shot and killed during a recess of the court while he was being tried. Simon was shot by the principal witness for the prosecution while standing in a saloon.

Simon was placed on trial for the murder of Emmett Carroll in a gang feud nearly a year ago. The sheriff had feared an attack would be made on Simon and special officers were on hand to prevent disorder. When court took a recess for luncheon Simon went to a saloon less than two blocks away. Four policemen who had been in court to guard him waited on a street corner for his return.

James Mooney, owner of the saloon, said that Simon and Henry Zang, principal witness for the prosecution, entered the saloon together and each drank a glass of beer. Suddenly Zang shot Simon twice in the stomach. He then left the saloon, walked to the central police station, and handing a revolver to the officer at the desk, said: "I've had some trouble with Red Simon and I thought I'd better come over."

CAUGHT WITH GOODS ON HIM

Robber Admits Breaking Into Fort Wayne Houses.

Fort Wayne, Ind., March 3.—William Thatcher, aged twenty-four, paroled from the Jeffersonville reformatory, did not hesitate to confess the robbery of four houses in this city when he was arrested with his clothing and suitcase filled with plunder. Jewelry, silverware and watches listed in police records as having been taken in the robberies were found in possession of Thatcher.

He was arrested at Grabill, Allen county, on a charge of having stolen a horse and buggy from the stables at the school for feeble-minded youths. The horse and buggy were found in Grabill and returned. Thatcher was sent to Jeffersonville for the theft of a horse and was paroled about a year ago.

Geologists Are Interested.

Princeton, Ind., March 3.—Queer markings are shown on a block of coal taken from a depth of more than 400 feet in the Princeton mine. Old Horseman Killed.

Noblesville, Ind., March 3.—George C. McMahan, seventy years old, is dead of injuries sustained in a runaway when the horse he was driving leaped over a twelve-foot embankment, taking the cart and driver with him.

D. D. D. In Hospitals; Standard Skin Cure

How many hospital patients, suffering the frightful itch, the raw scorching pain of skin disease, have been soothed to sleep by a soothing fluid washed in by the nurse's hands? That fluid is the famous D. D. D. prescription for eczema.

THE SUPERVISING NURSE of one of our prominent Catholic institutions (name of nurse and institute on application), writes regarding a patient. "The disease had eaten her eyebrows away. Her nose and lips had become disfigured. Since the use of D. D. D. her eyebrows are growing, her nose and face have assumed their natural expression."

How many eczema sufferers are paying their doctors for regular treatment and are being treated with this same soothing, healing fluid?

DR. GEO. T. RICHARDSON frankly

Lytle's Drug Store

writes "D. D. D. is superior to anything I have ever found. Soft and soothing, yet a powerful agent."

To do the work, D. D. D. Prescription must be applied according to directions given in the pamphlet around every bottle. Follow these directions—and see!

And it certainly takes away the itch at once—the moment the liquid is applied. The skin is soothed—calmed—so thoroughly refreshed—delightfully cooled.

All druggists of standing have the famous specific as well as the efficient D. D. D. Skin Soap.

But we are so confident of the merits of this prescription that we will refund the purchase price of the first full size bottle if it fails to reach your case. You alone are to judge.

NEW ERA ARRIVED AT UNIVERSITY

C. C. Childs, New Football Coach
Welcomed to Bloomington by
Big Turn Out of Students

IS GIVEN WARM RECEPTION

(By United Press.)
Bloomington, Ind., March 3—Indiana University's "new era" formally arrived yesterday in the form of C. C. Childs, the new football coach. The "new era" wasn't allowed to come quietly, but was accompanied by a big delegation of alumni from Indianapolis and other points, and a big turn-out of students here. Preparations were under full sway for a "two-bit" banquet tonight at which Childs was to be the honor guest.

Though Childs is center of the entertainment, the moving force back of the whole thing is President Bryan who takes as much interest in athletics as any of the students. He created the term "new era" in connection with the coming of Childs as an all-year round football coach.

"There are two big ideas in Indiana university athletics that must be brought out in the future work," according to President Bryan. "First we must encourage loyalty, and second we must establish the idea of all-year-round coaching."
At tonight's banquet Childs will be surrounded by last year's football men. Speakers at the table will include prominent alumni. The idea has been to unite all elements into a warm reception for Childs.

THROWS BOMB IN CHARITY CAMP

Mayor Bell of Indianapolis Says too Much Money is Subscribed That Goes to Salaries

SEES NO REASON FOR DELAYS

Will Use Money Obtained from Sunday Motion Picture Shows
for This Purpose

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, March 3—That Mayor Bell of this city has thrown a bomb into the organized-charity camp was evident today. In an interview with the United Press he gave positive voice to the intimation often made that too much money subscribed to charity goes to pay the salaries of men who begin work at 9:30 a. m. and quit at 5 p. m. Bell didn't say all heads of charity organizations do this, but he knew of some who do.

"I intend to take some portion of the charity funds away from these 'red tape' organizations and place it where none of it will go to salaries and where it can be had for immediate use in urgent cases," he said.

Mayor Bell's idea is that when a man, woman or child needs food he ought to have it at once; that when a person is out in the cold without proper clothing, he is entitled to clothing at once, and a place to get warm. Delay in such cases according to the mayor, is not real charity.

"For that reason, I'm opposed to looking up the pedigree of persons in urgent need," he said. "I have appointed a committee of competent men who will be ready to act quickly, and none of them will draw a salary. When the police find a person suffering, they can 'phone a member of this committee. This man will then 'phone a grocery or a coal office or a carpenter, or clothier, and the needy family will be cared for as quickly as a delivery wagon can make the trip."

The mayor is going to use for this purpose the money obtained for charity from the moving picture shows. This money in the past has been going to the Citizens' Charity Organization. Mayor Bell said he understood that $75 per month of this money was helping pay the salary of an official. This money should go to the city, he believes, because it is the city which licenses the "movies" and permits them to be open on Sunday.

"If the mayor's committee doesn't co-operate it will be a poor arrangement," said Mr. Grout, head of the Charity Organization Society, which up to the present time has had no opposition in the distribution of charity in Indianapolis. "There will be duplication," he said. "The indigent and unworthy will impose on a committee that takes no time to investigate cases. Diverting this fund to other sources will not hamper our organization, for it was a small part of our sources."

This fund from the moving picture theaters has long been considered in Indianapolis a sort of pacifier to the city. Some doubt the motives of the show proprietors and think the gift of a small part of the receipts to charity only a means of avoiding a city ordinance, which states that all theaters and amusement houses shall be closed on Sunday. Only a small portion of the receipts finds its way to the charity fund. The rest swells the income of the stock holders. When Mayor Bell and Police Chief Perrott closed the town recently these shows were not affected. As another means of making their position more secure, no tickets are sold on Sunday. The patron gives the entrance fee direct to the doorkeeper, and it is then deposited in the "charity box."

MORAN WITH NEWCASTLE

Former Shelbyville Pitcher Signs to Play There.

Newcastle has signed Jack Moran to do the pitching for this season. Moran played with Shelbyville last year and while he is considered a good pitcher, proved easy for the Rushville team. Rushville defeated Shelbyville with Moran in the box by an 8 to 3 score. In this game he went good for about four innings, then blew up. If Rushville and Newcastle ever play this season the local fans would like nothing better than to have Moran in the box. Newcastle will also use Johnny Kerlin, the Cambridge City southpaw in the box the coming season.

Chicago, Mar. 3.—One was killed, one fatally hurt and two were seriously injured when a Grand Trunk passenger train, inbound, crashed into a Wabash freight train at Forty-ninth and Ada streets today. Steel coaches prevented a terrible loss of life, railroad officials said. Arley Burns died shortly after reaching the hospital.
The Grand Trunk passenger was several hours late and eyewitnesses say it was speeding through the outskirts at the rate of 50 miles per hour. The big locomotive plowed through the middle of the freight train of thirty cars.

GATE COMPANY ACQUIRES SITE

Buy McIntee Property at Northwest Corner of L. E. & W. Railroad and Third Street

A BUILDING WILL BE PUT UP

It May Be Completed this Month if Weather Does Not Interfere. Increase Force of Men.

The National Gate Company has purchased the John McIntee property at the northwest corner of Third street and the L. E. & W. railroad, it was announced by officials of the company today, and will erect a building at once to house the new home industry.

The gate company has been negotiating with the railroads entering Rushville for several weeks to get a location for their factory, but all deals fell through. However, within a half hour after the company had decided on the McIntee property as a site for the concern, the Big Four presented an offer whereby the company could acquire the ground at the northwest corner of the Big Four railroad and Seventh street, where the old Bentwood factory once stood.

The ground which was procured by the National Gate Company is a hundred and twenty-nine feet wide at the north end, a hundred feet wide at the south end and three hundred and thirty feet long. The property, which is located at the south end, will be left standing and the new home of the concern will be erected on the north end.

The building will be forty-eight feet by ninety-six feet and will be a frame structure of one story with a solid concrete foundation. If the weather is not too unfavorable, the building will likely be completed this month. A large force of men will be put to work at once.

The concern will install all of the modern machinery that it can use to advantage and will increase its force be several men. In its present hampered quarters the company could not accomplish scarcely anything. Only three men have been working and they were often in one another's way, so cramped was the building.

"We have not been taking any more orders than we thought we could fill," said a member of the company this morning, "but when we get into our new building, we will be able to handle all the business that comes our way."

"We have been hampered so by our cramped room that we had to refuse orders. We feel that we can get the business, once we are prepared to handle it. The success of our gate makes it plain that we can sell the output."

The members of the company are very well pleased with the new site. The shipping facilities are excellent. On the east of the site are the Big Four and L. E. & W. railroads, and on the north the C. H. & D. railroad.

The bond sale and the letting of the contract for the new school building in Walker township to be built in Manilla, which was to have occurred today, was postponed until March 26. GRAND LARCENY CHARGE TO BE MADE

Fred Thomas, Age 17, of Fairland, is Arrested in Shelbyville For Stealing 30 Pounds of Copper.

FROM THE I. & C. TRACTION CO.

Lenroy Cox of this city, chief of the track and line department of the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company, was expected in Shelbyville today to prefer charges of grand larceny against Fred Thomas, age seventeen years, who was arrested there last Saturday evening for the theft of thirty pounds of copper from the I. & C.

The boy lives in Fairland, but was in Shelbyville trying to dispose of the booty when the Shelbyville police were notified of the robbery. After a junk dealer refused to buy the copper, the boy hid it in a snow pile. He at first denied he had stolen it, declaring the copper was his father's but later admitted the crime.

The boy's father has been in the insane hospital in Indianapolis for several months and his mother is serving a term in the Indiana women's prison, together with Mr. and Mrs. Dallis Taggart, for the theft of 19 chickens.

Ordinance in Indianapolis City Council to Prohibit Interurbans From Leaving at Certain Times

HEAVY PENALTY PROVIDED

Attention is Called, in Introducing Measure, to Recent Accident Near the Viaduct.

There was introduced at the regular meeting of the Indianapolis city council in Indianapolis last night an ordinance to limit the speed of city and interurban cars in Indianapolis; to prohibit interurban cars from leaving the traction terminal station during traffic rush hours and to provide that during operation interurban city cars shall be no closer than fifty feet.

This ordinance is a direct outgrowth of the accident at the foot of the viaduct in Indianapolis two weeks ago when an Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company's freight car crashed into the back end of a city car and caused the death of four and the injury of several others.

No attempt has ever been made to fix the blame for the recent accident. The coroner has finished his investigation and the Marion county grand jury and the public service commission were also to conduct inquiries. At the investigation of the coroner, the evidence did not tend to fix the blame on anyone. George Skipton of this city, the master mechanic of the I. & C., said that the brakes on the interurban car were in good working order and practically all of the witnesses said that the freight car was not running over eight or ten miles an hour.

The ordinance introduced last night provides that freight and interurban cars shall not depart from Indianapolis station between the hours of 6:30 and 8:30 a. m.; 11:30 and 1 p. m. and 5 and 7 o'clock p. m. A fine of from $10 to $100 is proposed for each violation of the ordinance.

EXHIBIT HAD WIDE APPEAL

Recent Activity of Purdue University Resulted in Stimulation of Poultry Interests.

IN CONNECTION WITH SHOWS

Intimate Contact Reached With Farmers is Held to be Most Important Factor.

Poultry interests in Indiana have received a stimulus as the result of an educational exhibit sent out from Purdue University. The exhibit consisting of work of the Poultry Department in concrete form was accompanied by a Poultry specialist who conducted demonstrations, lectures, advised with the poultry people and in other ways assisted in the movement.

"Grow more and better chickens," "Produce larger numbers of better eggs at a lower cost," "Make the poultry business pay" were some of the slogans used in this campaign. The people listened and heard and it is evident that results will be secured.

The shows visited were Thorntown, Sheridan, Terre Haute, Rensselaer, Evansville, Peru, and LaPorte. This is a feature of extension work which no other state has yet been able to conduct successfully, but the success of the Purdue work this year has been such that it will be continued again next winter.

The intimate contact reached with the farmers is the most important factor accomplished by the work this year. From the large amount of correspondence received at Purdue from poultry men and farmers where exhibits are held, it is very evident that a great deal of interest was aroused through this agency. In one instance the officials of the show state that the public was interested more in the educational exhibits than in the birds which were shown. A model poultry house, different types of feeders, egg testers, and various other items of equipment constituted the exhibit.

Since the exhibit was held one week at each place, the Purdue representative had an opportunity to become acquainted with the local conditions and to offer many timely suggestions when called upon. He visited a few farms to assist the farmers in solving some of their problems. Officials from all of the shows state that he did much to contribute toward the success of the poultry work.

KUBLER REFUSED LICENSE

Commissioners Turn Down One Applicant at Connersville.

The Fayette county commissioners granted nine liquor licenses yesterday and refused one. The refusal was in the case of William Kubler. The action of the board was the outgrowth of a window smashing episode pulled off a few weeks ago by Kubler. Kubler sought to have his license transferred to a room at the corner of Sixth and Central avenue. He held a lease on the room and one Saturday night he went to the place and smashed every window in the front of the place. At the hearing for a transfer several saloon men testified against him and the action of the board in refusing a license came as no surprise.

The Berlin Women's Bank is said to be the only one in the world run for and by women exclusively.

MEAT MARKET WAS ROBBED

L. C. Sharp's Place Entered and $3.65 in Cash Taken.

The L. C. Sharp meat market in West Second street was robbed last night of $3.65 in money. The front door was found unlocked this morning when Mr. Sharp went to open up for the day. He left four dollars in change in the cash drawer on closing last night and all but thirty-five cents was taken. The front door was closed but not locked after the robbery. The matter was reported to the police but there is no clue. Mr. Sharp did not miss any meat and the robber was evidently only after money.

Understood Compromise Provided For Payment of Almost Face Value of Policies.

RESULT OF MASONIC FIRE

The cases brought by John W. Jackson, whose store was destroyed in the Masonic Temple fire, against insurance companies holding policies on his stock, were dismissed today in the circuit court. The cases were against the Fidelity Underwriters, the Rochester German Underwriters Agency, the Phoenix Assurance company and the Liverpool and London and Globe insurance companies.

In all $5,400 was demanded, and while it was not given out how much Mr. Jackson received in the compromise, it is understood that he was paid almost the face value of the policies. The companies withheld payment on the policies following the fire and Mr. Jackson was forced to sue. It has been the general understanding in court that the cases would never come to trial and the compromise caused no surprise.

TOM SULLIVAN IN RUNAWAY

Deputy Sheriff Had Thrilling Time Near Blue Ridge.

Thomas Sullivan, deputy sheriff, had a thrilling experience yesterday in a runaway near Blue Ridge. Mr. Sullivan was serving some papers connected with his office in that community. The buggy upset in an open ditch and when the shafts broke the horse ran away. Mr. Sullivan was locked up in the overturned buggy and all that saved him from injury is the fact that the horse ran away. The buggy was slightly damaged and it was necessary to borrow a set of shafts to make the return trip to this city. The outfit was the property of Sheriff Cavitt.

(By United Press.)

Galveston, Tex., Mar. 3.—Joy of Japs! The dance "hall" is two and half miles long and 300 feet wide. Fifteen regimental bands, the pick of the second division of the U. S. army not quartered here will furnish the music. The largest tango party ever held is the expectation of the hosts.

The occasion of this big party is the celebration of the completion of a newly constructed pleasure vehicle driveway, the pride of Galveston. The thoroughfare, which runs through the finest residential section, is paved with the best material obtainable, has a 100 foot esplanade that runs through to center. In this strip are palms, and tropical plants of all kinds. Double rows of gas and electric lights line each of the streets' halves.

The residents rank the new driveway with the sea-wall as an evidence of civic endeavor.

Amusements

The Gem offers a three reel lupp feature tonight entitled "Miracle Mary." Fritz Brunette is featured. The story is taken from a magazine feature and deals with the reformation of a girl through the Salvation army. The girl is later charged with murder and the miracle occurs. Tomorrow night the Bison feature "The Water War" in two parts will be shown.

The Portola was unable to secure the Mary Fuller picture tonight and in its place will show a Vitaphone drama "Her Faith in the Flag." The picture that was to have been shown tonight will be brought here at an early date. The other film tonight is "Pathe Weekly, No. 67."

The Princess will show tonight the two reel special "Heartease." The production stands out as an individual type. The story as it moves across the screen is so perfectly connected and so carefully prepared in every respect that it lives in the mind of the spectator as a vivid bit of realism. The climax of the picture is tremendously spectacular in effect, for one night a fire breaks out in the mansion, and after all are conveyed to safety the little son, remembering his mother's portrait rushes in, grasps the picture, and is rescued from the burning building by his father only to expire with his mother's picture clasped close to his heart. Tomorrow, Matinee and night the big three reel special "When the Earth Trembled" will be shown. This is a wonderful production by the Labin company and features Harry Myers and Ethel Clayton.

An event of unusual theatrical importance for the week of March 9th Shubert Marat Theater, Indianapolis, is the coming of Mr. Robert B. Mantell, the leader of the American stage in the Shakespearean and classic drama. Mr. Mantell is just returning from his Coast tour which was a real ovation. Last week in Winnipeg, Manitoba, the receipts for the week were over $12,000. The feature of his tour this year is a massive production of Shakespeare's historical tragedy, "King John." Never has a Shakespearean production been reviewed by the critics in such a laudatory manner. The repertoire announced for the week is as follows:

Monday, March 9	"King John"
Tuesday, March 10	"Hamlet"
Wednesday Matinee	"Merchant of Venice"
Wednesday night	"Macbeth"
Thursday, March 12	"King Lear"
Friday, March 13	"King John"
Saturday matinee, Saturday night	"Merchant of Venice."

Mail orders are being received for Mr. Mantell's engagement.

George Marshall and Dudley Morgan of Indianapolis Thought They

Had Booze

BUT IT WAS FORMALDEHYDE

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, March 3.—Having decided on an early morning "glad-dener," George Marshall, age 43, and Dudley Morgan, age 64, his step-father, searched today for the whiskey bottle. They found instead a quart bottle of formaldehyde, used as a disinfectant. Both men took a tip without noticing the mistake.

Mrs. Marshall found them later and tried to arouse them. The two men are in the city hospital where it is said the danger is passed. The doctors said that they did not yet know their mistakes due to the imperceptible action of the poison.

Value of Rheuma From the Court

Judge Barhorst Was Relieved of Rheumatism After Doctors Failed.

If you have tried many other remedies and doctors' treatments for Rheumatism and found they failed, do not be skeptical about trying RHEUMA. Read the testimony of Judge John Barhorst of Fort Laramie, O.: "After treatment by three doctors without result, I have been cured of a very bad case of Rheumatism by using two bottles of RHEUMA. It is now two years since I used the remedy, and I am still as well as ever. Previously, I was a cripple, walking with crutches." Such testimony should be convincing. 50 cents of F. B. Johnson & Co.

Value of Rheuma From the Court

Judge Barhorst Was Relieved of Rheumatism After Doctors Failed.

If you have tried many other remedies and doctors' treatments for Rheumatism and found they failed, do not be skeptical about trying RHEUMA. Read the testimony of Judge John Barhorst of Fort Laramie, O.:

"After treatment by three doctors without result, I have been cured of a very bad case of Rheumatism by using two bottles of RHEUMA. It is now two years since I used the remedy, and I am still as well as ever. Previously, I was a cripple, walking with crutches."

Such testimony should be convincing. 50 cents of F. R. Johnson & Co.

He's the Committee.

"Thomas Taggart came up from French Lick and attended the meeting. He is not a member of the state committee. He is the state committee." Indianapolis News.

This sums up the situation in Indiana Democratic politics. The strange thing about it seems to be that no one will even deny any charges of this nature. The Democratic party goes placidly on under the attacks from many quarters. Mr. Taggart continues to strengthen his strangle hold and the fellows down in the trenches think it is great stuff.

The politics in the party of Woodrow Wilson and William Jennings Bryan in Indiana has descended to such a state that a state official, an appointee hand picked by the state machine, has been selected to make all of the arrangements for the state convention.

The fellow who seems to be the "goat" is James F. Fry, state oil inspector. He is being paid with the good money we, the people of Indiana, pay in the form of inheritance tax and other such taxes. He draws a decent salary, which is supposed to be for working for the people who pay him. But he probably has ample time to keep the bright lights burning in his Indianapolis office.

At any rate we know that he has time to do the machine's bidding. The machine said for "Jim" to be the whole committee on arrangements at the coming state convention, and "Jim" will have to be. If he didn't obey the machine, a faithful lieutenant could be supplied who would and it wouldn't be long until he would have "Jeemes'" job, either.

Fry will select all of the assistant sergeants-at-arms, door-keepers and other helpers for the affair; he will look after the music, the decorations, the seating of the hall, the distribution of tickets, and practically everything but the nomination of the ticket. The machine itself will look after that part of the work, the delegates having an opportunity to ratify the selections and give three cheers for the ticket.

This is the first time that a state convention has been in the hands of one man, as this one will be in the hands of Fry. It has been the custom for the state committee to appoint a committee of its own members for this duty. Fry sat in the meeting, Saturday afternoon, in place of Edward G. Hoffman, of Ft. Wayne, district chairman for the Twelfth district, and after the close of the meeting he was bearing up nicely under the load of responsibility that had been heaped upon him.

BOLD STAND OF CARRANZA

Defiant Attitude of Credited Head of

BRITISH RESERVE RIGHT.

(By United Press.)

London, Mar. 3.—The British government reserves the right to itself to obtain full reparation for the murder of W. S. Benton, the British subject, at the hands of General Villa, a Rebel leader.

Sir Edward Grey, secretary of foreign affairs, made that announcement this afternoon in the House of Commons in answer to a question as to the status of the Mexican situation. He said England had no intention of sending armed troops into Mexico and intimated that he believed that the United States would make it unnecessary for Great Britain to act.

(Special to the Daily Republican)
Washington, March 3.—Left in a predicament by General Carranza's determination to maintain the dignity of his revolutionary chieftainship at the expense of the United States and Great Britain, the state department now is endeavoring to reach an agreement with the Constitutionalist leader by which the investigation into the Benton matter may continue.

While it is generally conceded that a diplomatic blunder was made in exposing the United States government to a denial by Carranza of the right of Washington to act in the interests of Great Britain in northern Mexico, officials are hopeful that a way can be found to surmount the obstacles interposed by the Constitutionalist.

The situation precipitated by Carranza's bold declarations was characterized as very serious because of its having effectually tied the hands of the United States, for the moment at least, in its effort to fulfill the task which Great Britain has imposed on Washington in the Benton case.

A new tone with regard to the Mexican situation was perceptible at the White House and was generally interpreted as an indication of a forthcoming stiffening of the administration's policy.

For the first time the president seemed to be giving thought to the possibility of enforced intervention as a real factor in the situation. At any rate he took occasion to warn those who are urging vigorous action in Mexico of what it would cost in human life and to caution them that they must be prepared to pay the price of such a course. He urged patience upon those Americans.

The British ambassador, Sir Cecil Arthur Spring-Rice was quick to take cognizance of the change in the situation resulting from Carranza's declaration of policy with reference to the relations of the Constitutionalist authorities with other governments. He brought with him to the state department the Spanish ambassador, Don Hinojo, whose interest in the situation is identical with that of the British because Carranza has declared that Spain also must deal directly with him in regard to the interests of subjects in constitutional territory in Mexico. The killing of a Spaniard in Tepic has furnished a parallel of the Benton case.

The two ambassadors conferred with John Bassett Moore, the international law authority of the administration, with regard to the right of Spain and Great Britain to choose to ask the United States to act for them instead of themselves dealing directly with Carranza. The conclusion reached as a result of the informal discussion was that both governments are quite within rights and it may be accepted as an established fact that neither government will yield to Carranza's demand for recognition of his claims that they must deal with him alone. The ambassadors also conferred with Secretary Bryan on the same subject and were assured that the United States government would continue to exert itself in their interests.

Movement Under Way for Act to
Allow Witness Fees in Criminal
Trials in Indiana

JUDGE MARKEY FAVORS PLAN

Present Custom is Hardship to Poor
People as They Have to Pay
Own Expenses

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, March 3.—Crystallizing sentiment here makes it appear that a formidable lobby will request the next legislature for a law allowing expenses and a fee to witnesses in criminal trials.

Judge Markey of Criminal court is leading the movement, and he is backed by the prosecutors' office, Judge Deery of Police court and Sheriff Portiens. They believe that witnesses in criminal trials should receive the same consideration as they do in civil trials and that as the matter now stands a hardship is often worked on the needy.

"When I am informed that a very poor person is to be called as a witness in a criminal case I make provisions for him," Judge Markey told the United Press today. "I have a fund here to be used for that purpose if I wish. Often, however, I am not informed concerning the finances of the witnesses, and in those cases, I fear, they suffer."

"I shall be interested in asking the next legislature to make it possible to send with the subpoenae the expenses of going to the city where the trial is held, and to make it possible for the witnesses to collect a fee and expenses both while in the city and for the return trip."

Ralph McCarty, Prosecutor Baker's first assistant, said he also thought such a law would be beneficial.

"The present law which makes it possible for a person to be declared 'indigent' is unsatisfactory," he said, "because many of the very poor are too proud to take advantage of it. Also, when they are called to testify before the grand jury or in a criminal case the next day, there is no opportunity to complete the 'real tape' necessary to take advantage of that decision."

Sheriff Portiens in a recent interview said that his experience in serving subpoenae has convinced him that a hardship is done by the state in many instances. He said he intended to go before the legislature to ask that expenses and a fee be allowed.

"Often when there is a change of venue to another county or when persons are called before the grand jury from another county the hardship results," he said.

Judge Deery of Police court, who formerly was deputy prosecutor in charge of the Marion county grand jury, said that many times he had called people from northern and southern parts of the state before the jury; and that they had been forced to return for trial. "They never had any resource, but they had to come. It is an injustice even to a well-to-do person."

We note that yesterday was the last day for filing our notice of intention to obey the income tax law. Sorry day it was for "us" paragraphers, which are not paragraphers, when we have to pay a tax on an income of nothing. If we really were taking the law seriously, we would be likely file a schedule something like this:

Income since birth (for all of which we want to pay because we have no desire to cheat anyone, much less the government) $,000,000.

Income tax on that amount which is equal to one-tenth of the total amount $,000,000.

Responsibility acts differently on different people. Some it sobers; others it intoxicates; some it enlarges the topmost part and others it pays a thousand per cent.

QUAKER CITY HARD HIT BY THE STORM

Philadelphia Completely Disorganized By Blizzard.

Philadelphia, March 3.—Railroad service in snowbound Philadelphia is crippled in all directions and in some cases practically has been discontinued. Telegraphic communication is practically cut off. Seven persons are dead in this city as a result of the storm.

The blizzard was the most disastrous since February, 1902. The actual snowfall is about seven inches, but the high winds have piled up five-foot drifts in many places. The wind attained a velocity of forty-three miles an hour. In the northeastern part of the city several houses were blown down. Germantown, Mt. Airy and Chestnut Hill were snowbound many hours. Police went to the rescue of many persons, principally women who became exhausted while beating their way home.

Overhead wires were blown from the trolley poles and littered the streets, and poles were hurled across the tracks. The police stations sheltered many persons in all parts of the city who were unable to reach their homes on account of the fury of the storm. Reports from all points upstate as far as Williamsport tell of great havoc wrought; houses blown down and unroofed and many barns destroyed.

REGISTRATION BOOKS "FIXED"

Terre Haute Jury Hears More Testimony in the Scandal Concerning the Election.

FALSE NAMES WERE ENTERED

Evidence Shows in Addition That Persons Were Registered From Fake Addresses.

BOTH SIDES REST.

(By United Press.)

Terre Haute, Mar. 3.—Both the state and the defense in the local election fraud cases rested today and court was adjourned until tomorrow at 10 a. m. when the argument will begin. Mrs. Grover Smith, wife of one of the defendants, testified today that "framers-up" were at her home election eve and that ballots were marked that night.

"I lied when I told the defense attorney earlier that no ballots were marked in my home that night," she said.

(Special to the Daily Republican)

Terre Haute, Ind., March 3.—In the trial of William Huffman, accused of election fraud, the state brought about a disclosure of about 200 false and fictitious names on the registration books of Precinct D of the Seventh ward.

According to Special Prosecutor Roach in a statement to the court, the purpose of investigating the registration books was to connect the alleged election fraud conspiracy of Huffman, Helmick, Zaring and others with the taking of official ballots and the marking of the same.

The state also produced more damaging evidence when all the ballots returned from that precinct, both voted and unused, were counted in the presence of the jury. The count showed a total of 829 and revealed a shortage of 155 ballots, within one ballot of the number Zaring and Whistler said were marked. B. M. Cathoun, Progressive clerk of the election board, identified his signature of initials on the ballots.

Mike Zabo, a Roumanian, gave evidence to show that scores of foreigners did not register at the polling places, but wrote their names on affidavits in the Dan Alban saloon. Two barrels of free beer was the inducement that attracted foreigners to this saloon registration.

Joseph Carter again went on the stand and told of making a complete poll of American and English speaking voters of the precinct. Mr. Carter, through typewritten pages, showed that scores of false names had been registered from vacant lots, while others were registered from addresses where the persons did not live.

Hazleton, Pa., March 3.—Miss Ella Sweeney, twenty-two years old, of Freeport, was found frozen to death in a cutter where her companion, James Bartholdi, had left her in a blinding storm, while he went for help. They became stuck in the snow and Bartholdi left her while he went on foot for assistance. When he reached help two miles distant he was so exhausted he was not permitted to return. A searching party found Miss Sweeney's body.

MRS. LYON'S ACHES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS LYON, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womankind a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

Rev. Welker preached at the morning service, taking the subject of "Reading." The scriptural foundation is in the admonition of the Apostle Paul to Timothy saying after all purity of speech, thought and action one should select pure reading such as is found in the scriptures religious books and papers. On the account of the inclemency of the weather not many attended the preaching services. The thermometer at the Sunday school went down to 23.

YOU CAN'T EARN MONEY WHEN YOU'RE LAID UP

There are a lot of people in this town who cannot afford to be sick. Perhaps none of you feel that you can, but certainly some of you can't for as soon as you are sick, your wages stop and worry and debts begin to pile up. The sensible thing for you to do, as soon as you feel run-down and worn out, no matter what the cause, is to take something just as quick as you can to build up strength and health. Make yourself more comfortable and provide against serious sickness.

We don't believe there is any other medicine made that will do as much towards saving your health and thus helping you save your money as Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. It is a medicine that gets right at the trouble and relieves it by toning the nerves, enriching the blood, and giving new strength and health to the whole body. It doesn't do this by means of alcohol or habit-forming drugs, because it contains none. Its strength and healthgiving power is due to pure Olive Oil and the Hypophosphites, long endorsed by successful physicians, the one for its food value, the other for its tonic value. Here, for the first time, they are combined, and the result is a real nerve, blood and body-building medicine—a real strengthener that we are proud to tell you about. You don't need to hesitate in using it, because if it doesn't do all we say it will and satisfy you in every way, it will cost you nothing. If it doesn't do all we say it will and satisfy you in every way, it will cost you nothing. If it doesn't make you strong and well again, come back and get your money. It will be given to you without word or question. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us. $1.00. Lytle's Drug Store, Third and Main, Rushville, Ind. WOULDN'T FACE INSPECTION

When Shortage Was Disclosed Postmaster Killed Himself.

Fort Wayne, Ind., March 3.—Flora Shenk, postmaster at Cedar, Dekalb county, was shot in his accounts when he ended his life with a revolver, in his office. It was given out at first that the act was prompted by ill-health, but it has been learned that Postoffice Inspector Beatty of Springfield, O., had checked up the office and found discrepancies between the accounts and the cash on hand. The inspector inquired the names of Shenk's bondsmen and sat down in the front of the office to write a report, when he heard the report of a revolver and ran to the rear of the office, to find Shenk dying. Mr. Beatty says the shortage was comparatively a trivial one that Shenk could have settled easily. The inspector has recommended that the postoffice at Cedar be abolished and that patrons be served by rural routes out of Garrett.

Henry Zang, Prosecuting Witness in Case Against Wesley Simon, Kills Simon.

LATER GIVES HIMSELF UP

[Special to the Daily Republican.] St. Louis, March 3.—Wesley (Red) Simon, on trial here for murder, was shot and killed during a recess of the court while he was being tried. Simon was shot by the principal witness for the prosecution while standing in a saloon.

Simon was placed on trial for the murder of Emmett Carroll in a gang feud nearly a year ago. The sheriff had feared an attack would be made on Simon and special officers were on hand to prevent disorder. When court took a recess for luncheon Simon went to a saloon less than two blocks away. Four policemen who had been in court to guard him waited on a street corner for his return.

James Mooney, owner of the saloon, said that Simon and Henry Zang, principal witness for the prosecution, entered the saloon together and each drank a glass of beer. Suddenly Zang shot Simon twice in the stomach. He then left the saloon, walked to the central police station, and handing a revolver to the officer at the desk, said: "I've had some trouble with Red Simon and I thought I'd better come over."

CAUGHT WITH GOODS ON HIM

Robber Admits Breaking Into Fort Wayne Houses.

Fort Wayne, Ind., March 3.—William Thatcher, aged twenty-four, paroled from the Jeffersonville reformatory, did not hesitate to confess the robbery of four houses in this city when he was arrested with his clothing and suitcase filled with plunder. Jewelry, silverware and watches listed in police records as having been taken in the robberies were found in possession of Thatcher.

He was arrested at Grabill, Allen county, on a charge of having stolen a horse and buggy from the stables at the school for feeble-minded youths. The horse and buggy were found in Grabill and returned. Thatcher was sent to Jeffersonville for the theft of a horse and was paroled about a year ago.

Geologists Are Interested.

Princeton, Ind., March 3.—Queer markings are shown on a block of coal taken from a depth of more than 400 feet in the Princeton mine. Old Horseman Killed.

Noblesville, Ind., March 3.—George C. McMahan, seventy years old, is dead of injuries sustained in a runaway when the horse he was driving leaped over a twelve-foot embankment, taking the cart and driver with him.

D. D. D. In Hospitals; Standard Skin Cure

How many hospital patients, suffering the frightful itch, the raw scorching pain of skin disease, have been soothed to sleep by a soothing fluid washed in by the nurse's hands? That fluid is the famous D. D. D. Prescription for eczema.

THE SUPERVISING NURSE of one of our prominent Catholic institutions (name of nurse and institution on application), writes regarding a patient: "The disease had eaten her eyebrows away. Her nose and lips had become disfigured. Since the use of D. D. D. her eyebrows are growing, her nose and face have assumed their natural expression."

How many eczema sufferers are paying their doctors for regular treatment and are being treated with this same soothing, healing fluid?

DR. GEO. T. RICHARDSON frankly writes "D. D. D. is superior to anything I have ever found. Soft and soothing, yet a powerful agent."

To do the work, D. D. D. Prescription must be applied according to directions given in the pamphlet around every bottle. Follow these directions—and see!

And it certainly takes away the itch at once—the moment the liquid is applied. The skin is soothed—calmed—so thoroughly refreshed—delightfully cooled.

All druggists of standing have the famous specific as well as the efficient D. D. D. Skin Soap.

But we are so confident of the merits of this prescription that we will refund the purchase price of the first full size bottle if it fails to reach your case. You alone are to judge.

NEW ERA ARRIVED AT UNIVERSITY

C. C. Childs, New Football Coach
Welcomed to Bloomington by
Big Turn Out of Students

IS GIVEN WARM RECEPTION

(By United Press.)
Bloomington, Ind., March 3.—Indiana University's "new era" formally arrived yesterday in the form of C. C. Childs, the new football coach. The "new era" wasn't allowed to come quietly, but was accompanied by a big delegation of alumni from Indianapolis and other points, and a big turn-out of students here. Preparations were under full way for a "two-bit" banquet tonight at which Childs was to be the honor guest.

Though Childs is center of the entertainment, the moving force back of the whole thing is President Bryan who takes as much interest in athletics as any of the students. He created the term "new era" in connection with the coming of Childs as an all-year round football coach.

"There are two big ideas in Indiana university athletics that must be brought out in the future work," according to President Bryan. "First we must encourage loyalty, and second we must establish the idea of all-year-round coaching."

At tonight's banquet Childs will be surrounded by last year's football men. Speakers at the table will include prominent alumni. The idea has been to unite all elements into a warm reception for Childs.

THROWS BOMB IN CHARITY CAMP

Mayor Bell of Indianapolis Says too Much Money is Subscribed That Goes to Salaries

SEES NO REASON FOR DELAYS

Will Use Money Obtained from Sunday Motion Picture Shows for This Purpose

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, March 3.—That Mayor Bell of this city has thrown a bomb into the organized-charity camp was evident today. In an interview with the United Press he gave positive voice to the intimation often made that too much money subscribed to charity goes to pay the salaries of men who begin work at 9:30 a. m. and quit at 5 p. m. Bell didn't say all heads of charity organizations do this, but he knew of some who do.

"I intend to take some portion of the charity funds away from these 'red tape' organizations and place it where none of it will go to salaries and where it can be had for immediate use in urgent cases," he said.

Mayor Bell's idea is that when a man, woman or child needs food he ought to have it at once; that when a person is out in the cold without proper clothing, he is entitled to clothing at once, and a place to get warm. Delay in such cases according to the mayor, is not real charity.

"For that reason, I'm opposed to looking up the pedigree of persons in urgent need," he said. "I have appointed a committee of competent men who will be ready to act quickly, and none of them will draw a salary. When the police find a person suffering, they can 'phone a member of this committee. This man will then 'phone a grocery or a coal office, or a carpenter, or a clothier, and the needy family will be cared for as quickly as a delivery wagon can make the trip."

The mayor is going to use for this purpose the money obtained for charity from the moving picture shows. This money in the past has been going to the Citizens' Charity Organization. Mayor Bell said he understood that $75 per month of this money was helping pay the salary of an official. This money should go to the city, he believes, because it is the city which licenses the "movies" and permits them to be open on Sunday.

"If the mayor's committee doesn't co-operate it will be a poor arrangement," said Mr. Grout, head of the Charity Organization Society, which up to the present time has had no opposition in the distribution of charity in Indianapolis. "There will be duplication," he said. "The indigent and unworthy will impose on a committee that takes no time to investigate cases. Diverting this fund to other sources will not hamper our organization, for it was a small part of our sources."

This fund from the moving picture theaters has long been considered in Indianapolis a sort of pacifier to the city. Some doubt the motives of the show proprietors and think the gift of a small part of the receipts to charity only a means of avoiding a city ordinance, which states that all theaters and amusement houses shall be closed on Sunday. Only a small portion of the receipts finds its way to the charity fund. The rest swells the income of the stock holders. When Mayor Bell and Police Chief Perrott closed the town recently these shows were not affected. As another means of making their position more secure, no tickets are sold on Sunday. The patron gives the entrance fee direct to the doorkeeper, and it is then deposited in the "charity box."

MORAN WITH NEWCASTLE

Former Shelbyville Pitcher Signs to Play There.

Newcastle has signed Jack Moran to do the pitching for this season. Moran played with Shelbyville last year and while he is considered a good pitcher, proved easy for the Rushville team. Rushville defeated Shelbyville with Moran in the box by an 8 to 3 score. In this game he went good for about four innings, then blew up. If Rushville and Newcastle ever play this season the local fans would like nothing better than to have Moran in the box. Newcastle will also use Johnay Kerlin, the Cambridge City southpaw in the box the coming season.

FOUR ARE SERIOUSLY HURT

(By United Press.)
Chicago, Mar. 3.—One was killed, one fatally hurt and two were seriously injured when a Grand Trunk passenger train, inbound, crashed into a Wabash freight train at Forty-ninth and Ada streets today. Steel coaches prevented a terrible loss of life, railroad officials said. Arley Burns died shortly after reaching the hospital.

The Grand Trunk passenger was several hours late and eyewitnesses say it was speeding through the outskirts at the rate of 50 miles per hour. The big locomotive plowed through the middle of the freight train of thirty cars.
